Circulation of the Herald. Of this immense issue we circulate in PHILADELPHIA, Daily and Weekly, about BOSTON, CONNECTICUT, GALTIMORE, (not yet established fully.) WASHINGTON, WASHINGTON, ALBANY AND TROY, Daily and Weekly,

For some time past the news collectors of the Wall street press, on boarding vessels arriving at this port with late news have been in the habit of falsely saying that they collect ship and foreign news for all the New York papers. In consequence of this falsehood, many captains give them papers and packages which are intended for the Herald. No later ago than yesterday, one of these Wall street collectors made such a repre

Now, therefore, we hereby give notice to all shipmasters and Now, therefore, we hereby give notice to all shipmasters and captains of vessels, that neither Bancker, nor Lowber, nor Loaper, nor any other Wall street loafer, have any authority to get papers or packages intended for the Herald. Robert S. Martin, and his trusty red-whiskered mate, together with the pilots belonging to the New York Filot Company, aloue are authorized to take any papers or packages for this journal. A special notice—take heed.

My grandson was afflicted for nearly six years, with a nebula covering each eye, and so great was the inflammation that the white of his eyes were like scarlet, and for most part of the time be could not bear the light, we had him in the Eye Infirmary for eight months; he was discharged as incurable. We most fortunately applied to Dr. Francis, and from the use of his celebrated eye water, he is now restored to sight, for which the doctor is entitled to our lasting estream and gratitude.

To Dr. Francis—Deag Sir—In the fail of 1852, I was attacked tacked with measles, which left my eyes in a weak and inflamed state, and was obliged to relinquish my studies for two years. I resorted to various prescriptions, but received no benefit. I have used but two bottles of your eye water, and though I have studied closely all the time, my sight is perfectly restored.

BALTIMORE, Sunday, 2d May, 10 P. M. I send you a line this evening. The city of Baltinore is filled to overflowing with the members of the Convention, who are powring in by thousands .-More than twenty thousand strangers have already arrived. Eleven thousand delegates have already een registered, of the number. Such a burst of enthusiam mever was witnessed in the congregation of such an immense number of people ever gathered together. Every thing goes on with the most perfect harmony and unanimity. About sixty whig members of Congress are here. Mr. Clay and Mr Webster arrived this evening. Mr. Webster addressed the

New Hampshire delegation at Barnum's to-night. There has been much discussion as to the President of the Convention.

The Congressional candidates principally spoken of have been Corwin, of Obio, Cost Johnson, of Md., Wise, of Va., and Curtis and Hoffman, of A. Y.

I think no member of Congress will be chosen President, and that the number will be from New Jersey.

A committee of one from each delegation will nominate the officers of the Convention to-morrow nominate the officers of the Convention to morrow norsing.

It is raining very hard at this hour, and it is feared it will be bad weather in the morning.

Congress adjourned last evening, after passing the appropriation bill, to meet on Monday merning at S, and then adjourn till Thursday.

A locofoce cannot be seen, or heard of in the city of Baitimore. 700 members arrived to-night from Frederick, in a body.

Yours.

Aubany, May 4, 1840. Legislative Proceedings—Criminal Court—Albany Charter Election—Mr. Van Dyke—Dr. Peck— Mr. Hunt.

The Senate has been occupied all day in the third eading of bills. Some amendments to the Assembly bill for the better regulation of the State Prison, proposed by Mr. Edwards, were made the special rder; but that description of business was not

In the House, the re-organization of your Criminal Court has been under discussion in committee of the whole. At one period, there were strong reasons to apprehend its defeat; but it was finally referred to a select committee to report complete, by a close vote. I presume, it will be ordered to a third reading to-morrow. In calling the ayes and noes, on some motion in relation to it, no response was heard, when the name of Mr. Hitcheox was pronounced in the audible, sonorous tones of the clerk. Mr. H., who is a very good impersonation of Mrs. Malaprop's idea of Cerberus—three single gentlemen rolled into one, asked to have his name recorded in the negative, assigning as a reason for not answering, that he was out of his seat, although within the bar of the Honse, when the ayes and noes were called, and he had forgotten his cognomen. The Speaker admitted the reasonableness of the excuse, and Mr. Hickcox's request was complied with.

The charter election takes place in this city to-The charter election takes place in this city tomorrow, and both parties are preparing for the fight. There seems to be very little doubt that the whigs will succeed. They have an acknowledged majority in four out of the five wards, and their aggregate vote exceeds that of the locofocos by some six or seven hundred. There has been a little difference of opinion as to the suitable candidate for Mayor, and I presume, Mr. Rathbone will fall considerably short of the actual strength of his party.

cos all over the country, have driven them to desperation here, and they are resorting to every species of dirty, dastardly, dark and damnable trickery, in the hope of showing an increase in the capital of the empire state. The rolling and swelling of the Tippecanoe tide, has created confasion and dismay, both here and at Washington. The cry has come up from the White House, "help me, Cassius, or I sink?" In other words, "if you don't make a devil of a muster now, I shall be compelled to return to growing cabbages at Kinderhook," and the exertions of the party are unparalleled, as the desperation of their measures is unprecedented. Not content with the usual quantum of lying and inflammatory handbills, they have today been marshalling and organizing a strong body of Irishmen to take possession of the ballot boxes in the Fourth Ward.

But the whigs had an early intimation of the project, and I understand they have made arrangements to repel force by force; I presume, therefore, the design will be abandoned.

I suppose my portrait of Mr. Van Dyck requires some finishing touches; but where there are no salient points in a man's face or character, it needs a master's hand to produce a lifelike or striking picture. There is nothing prominent or peculiar about Mr. V. D. He is a bitter and unscrupulous partisan, and supports for party reasons, most of the preposterous theories of Col. Young. He speaks sensibly and intelligently, but his style is utterly devoid of eloquence or fervor. In short he is a plain, practical, common sense min, who rarely says a foolish thing, and never a very wise one, and who would go to the devil for his party, because, as one of the editors of the Argus, his pecuniary interest is involved in its success.

Next to Mr. Van Dyck, sits Bernuel Peck, of the Fourth District. He is a staid, modest, retiring physician, from Warren County. A sound Whig, and as true as steel on all party questions. He rarely addresses the Senate, except on matters directly affecting the interests of his constituents. He is attentive to his duties, and is understood to be a man of sound understanding; but he is unaccustemed to public speaking, and never makes an attempt at cratorical display.

Dr. Peck's neighbor on the right is Alvah Hunt, of the Sixth District. Mr. Hunt is an intelligent, sagacious and successful member from Chenango.—He is one of our most useful, upright and popular members of the Senate. His labors in behalf of his constituents have been unremitting. The bill in aid of that most absurd and worthless of all miserable projects, the Chenango Canal, could never have received the sanction of the Senate but for the high estimation in which he was held by his associates. They knew his constituents expected some movement in favor of their useless ditch; and out of regard for him, the bill was permitted to pass the Senate. Mr. Hunt ne

In the matter of Henry Meigs, clerk of the Cor art.—An affidavit was adduced to the court, certifying that Mr. Meigs had been severely indisposed for some time, and unable to attend to the daties of his office. The court thereupon delegated two of their members to assist Mr. Meigs, and ascerts in the state of his mental and physical disabilities.

The following gentlemen were sworu of the Grand Jury—Joseph Giraud, foreman; Robt. Bar Any, Arnel Fink, J. T. Deypester, John W. Walk er, J. T. Tilou, W. Dolson, J. A. Nichels, J. L. Kn app, E. S. Conovan, Peter Ames, J. S. Reynolds, J. Ward, Geo. Child, Alfred B. Hoxton, John C. Hull, Stephen Barker, Philo Doane, Z. Hyde, r.ad W. Anderson.

His Honor the Recorder delivered his usual charge to the Grand Jury, and told 'hem that during the sitting of the County Court 'se should sit at 10 A. M.

The Court then rose and adjourn .d.
